NO OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION OF TRANSFER OF BRITISH MINISTER FROM MEXICO CITY

Officials of the State Departm terday afternoon said no official advices had come confirming the reported announcement at the British foreign office GALE CAUSES HEAVY that Sir Lisuel Carden, minister to A ico, is to be transferred to the lega at Rio de Janeiro. There was, of cou no disposition to question the report be cause of the lack of official advices. It is taken for granted that the transfer is in deference to the feeling of the govern-ment regarding the attitude of Sir Lionel toward the American polic; in Mexico.

The State Department went so far as to have detailed inquiries made regarding Sir Lionel Carden's official antecedents and his alleged anti-Americanism when holding other diplomatic posts in the Caribbean countries. The British minis-ter's statements in Mexico City, and his reported attitude toward the Wilson policy in Mexico are regarded as the prime causes of the decision reached by the foreign office to transfer him re that Secretar Bryan addressed any official communic tion to the Pritish government regardin Sir Lionel's attitude. There is no doubt, however, that he let it be known to the British government that the President was surprise? that Great Britain should have as minister to Mexico a man who, apparently, was unable to make his pub-lic expressions conforn to the diplostandards between two friendly Transfer a Demotion.

It is accepted as fact beyond question hat no diplomat of Sir Lionel's capacity and achievement would wish to be re-lieved in the midst of a crisis such as exists in Mexico at this time. The Mexican situation is regarded as second in importance in the field of internation affairs only to the Balkan situation, and it is confidently asserted here that none of his colleagues will consider that Sir Lionel has received the most emphatic approval of his government in the

On behalf of Sir Lionel, it is asserted here by men in a position to know that he is not the intriguing diplomat, al-ways scheming to take advantage of the United States in Latin-America, which he has been represented to be. For several months Sir Lionel has been maintaining a discreet silence in Mexico City. In fact his indiscretions, which d to be the cause of his transfer, all occurred last summer. The dispatch of a new British Min-ister to Mexico City will again bring to the front the question of British recognition of President Huerta. It is said at the State Department that since Great Britain recognized Huerta as provisional President, and recognized provisional President, and recognized his government as a provisional government, there is nothing for her to do but continue that recognition.

Secretary Daniels declared yesterday that no additional warships will be sent to Mexico at present. Such battleships of the Atlantic fleet as are and now already in Mexica. be sent to Mexico at present. Such bettleships of the Atlantic fleet as are not now already in Mexican waters will sail on January 10 for Culebra, Porto Rico, and Guantanamo, Cuba, for the annual winter exercises and war games. Only in case of some extraordinary occurrence, it was said, will any adition to or change in the list of battleships now in Mexican waters be made until after the winter exercises. The vessels to go South next Saturday are the Wyoming, flagship of Admiral Badger, commander-in-chief; Florida, Utah, Delaware, and South Carolina. The torpedo flotilla, consisting of eighteen destroyers, will join the fleet en route to Culebra.

Electric Light Is Best Read About It

Next to daylight it is the best light you can have in your home, store, or office. In some respects it is better than daylight. Electric Light will illuminate closets, dark corners, and hallways where daylight does not penetrate. It is perfectly safe, absolutely clean and by far the most attractive light obtainable.

With Electric Light in your home you can employ many time, labor and money saving devices.

You can't afford to use a less modern illuminant simply because it appears to be cheaper. Electric Light will cost you less in the long run, and it will give you better and greater service.

With Mazda Lamps, 20 candlepower of Electric Light costs but one-quarter of a cent per hour's use.

WILSON'S PROGRAM WILL CALL FOR LONG SESSION

President Proposes to Keep Congress Busy on Important Legislation Until August at Least.

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 5.-President Wilson expects that Congress will be in continuous session from January 14 until late in July or August, according to those in close touch with his program. At least three separate bills relating to trust prob-lems must be disposed of, rural credits legislation, the Alaskan railroad and cotton future bills, and a measure felating to the mooted question of Federal or State control of water power development. This, in addition to the various appropriation bills, is the program which confronts Congress when it convenes next week. President Wilson will send special messages to Congress on the trust question and probably also on rural credits egislation. President Wilson would nake no com ment on the transfer of Sir Lie den, the British Ambassador to Mexico. Reports of a disaffection between Charge O'Shaughnessy, in charge of the American Embassy in Mexico City, and John Lind continue to be circulated here, President Wilson did not vary his regular program today, spending the ho-golfing, reading, and motoring.
